

IMPORTANT NOTICE:

A Major Opportunity.

Recent developments in our business here in Central Florida have opened up a formidable opportunity at our firm for a serious philatelist with solid knowledge of China and Asian philately. The individual we hire will be working for a respected philatelic firm in the delightful climate and activity-rich Orlando area.

We need a superior Asia specialist who can examine and describe stamp/postal history lots for our public auctions and mail sales. The individual must have a solid command of the English language for much writing is involved with this position.

The top notch philatelist we hire for this position will be compensated accordingly. Please contact Michael personally.
